

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

of the season, will come to Washington with her mother the first week of December. Senator and Mrs. Hitchcock will make their home at 1712 H. street north-west.

Mr. Raul Brin, son of the charge d'affaires of the republic of Panama and a student of the Maryland Agricultural College, has gone to New York for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Covert of this city are in Auburn, N. Y., called there by the death of Mrs. Covert's mother, Mrs. Harriet M. Downer, widow of Edwin Downer of that city.

Mrs. Downer had resided in Washington with her daughter for about six years. She came to Auburn on a visit about a month ago, was taken suddenly ill and passed away at the home of her grand-daughter, William S. Weed, last night at midnight. Mrs. Downer leaves one son, C. E. Weed, of Auburn, and her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Covert, who is now seriously ill owing to the shock of her mother's death. She is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Van Dyne at Auburn.

Mrs. Bernard H. Camden, wife of Lieut. Camden, entertained her friends at bridge in her apartments, on 16th street, Monday afternoon to meet Mrs. Stella Camden of Parkersburg, W. Va. Among those present were Mrs. Cheslie, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Innes, Mrs. Mahoney, Mrs. Rolfe, Mrs. C. C. Covert, Mr. Berthoff, Mrs. Ueberroth, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Foley and Mrs. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings and Miss Jennings, who were here for the wedding of Miss Gertrude Williams to Mr. Frederick De Courcy Faust Tuesday, returned to New York yesterday.

A pretty wedding took place this morning at St. Patrick's Church, when Miss L. Grace Nalls of Capitol Hill, daughter of Mrs. Mary V. Nalls, became the bride of Mr. Francis S. Dieter. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Carroll and was witnessed by the family and scores of friends. The bride was becomingly gowned in a suit of blue whipcord, with a large picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lillian Nalls, and Mr. Lewis Dieter was best man for his brother. The couple left on an early train for a southern trip, and will be entertained en route by the bride's sister, Mrs. William H. Frey of Petersburg, Va. After December 15 the bride will be at home to her friends at 323 B street southeast.

Miss Helen Gardner, daughter of former Representative Gardner, was married yesterday at her home in Alton, Mo., to Thomas Leslie Lloyd, son of Representative Lloyd of Missouri. The bride's father performed the ceremony. He is a Methodist minister.

The wedding is the result of a romance of the National Capital, the bride having been in society here during her father's terms in Congress and Mr. Lloyd being in Washington a great deal with his father. He has since been admitted to the bar in New York city, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd will make their home there. The honeymoon will be spent in Washington.

MAY LEAVE DISTRICT.

Capt. Markham, if Promoted, Likely to Get New Post.

In the event of his elevation to the rank of major, Capt. E. M. Markham, assistant engineer commissioner of the District, probably will be transferred to a new post. Capt. Markham left last night for New York, where he is taking an examination for the rank of major in the Engineer Corps of the army.

Several weeks ago Capt. Markham was designated to take the examination, the order coming as the assistant engineer commissioner has received no information concerning a probable transfer.

Capt. Markham was appointed to his present position July 17, 1897. It is understood that his transfer to a new post was under consideration several months ago, but on account of a number of important projects in the District being delayed at that time the matter was dropped.

The sewer and water departments are the principal local administrative branches that come under Capt. Markham's supervision at the present time. Formerly he had supervision of the highways department.

INSPECTION OF POLICE.

Annual Review of Precinct Members Continued Today.

The annual inspection of the police force of the District of Columbia was continued today when members of the ninth, sixth and third precincts paraded before the inspection board.

Shortly after 10 o'clock this morning Capt. Daley, in command of the ninth precinct, presented his command to the inspection board, consisting of Commissioner Johnston, Maj. Sylvester, Col. Burton R. Ross and S. H. Vandegrift. The inspections at the other precincts followed.

The seventh, eighth and tenth precincts were inspected yesterday. The mounted squad will also be inspected at the tenth precinct. The bicycle squad will be inspected on the plaza in front of the Arlington Hotel Saturday afternoon.

The first, fourth, fifth and eleventh precincts were inspected yesterday. The precinct making the best record in appearance, drill and the condition of their station house will be presented with the Wright trophy flag which is contested for each year.

Keystone Club Smoker.

A smoker was held by the Keystone Club at the clubrooms, 9th and G streets northwest, last evening. Informal addresses were made by the members.
